Dear CMS Families,

Here are some incredible, student written and produced videos celebrating and honoring our military heroes during CMS's, Take a Veteran to School Day last school year. A huge Triton shout out goes to Mrs. Amy Steward for coordinating this incredible learning opportunity with our friends at Time Warner and the History Channel, and certainly her wonderful students for recording many of the special events that day. You may also view these clips directly on the website at: <http://cms.coronadousd.net/> on the front of the webpage in the News section.
